The Science of Being Great

BY WALLACE D. WATTLES · PHILOSOPHERSNOTES © 2009

"The Principle of Power gives us just what we ask of it; if we only undertake little things, it only gives us power for little things; but if we try to do great things in a great way it gives us all the power there is."

~ Wallace D. Wattles from The Science of Being Great

I love Wallace D. Wattles. :)

Although relatively obscure, Wattles is one of the big influences in the New Thought movement. You might've read his popular The Science of Getting Rich, (influenced the peeps behind the movie The Secret quite a bit) but my hunch is you've probably never heard of The Science of Being Great. (Also known as How to be a Genius.)

Seeing that I'm giving myself a Ph.D. in Optimal Living with a Specialization in Greatness and Bliss (and Enthusiasm and all things good), I figured I should rock the PhilosophersNote on it.

It's packed with Big Ideas and I say we jump right in! :)

GOD & GREATNESS

"The prophets and seers and great men and women, past and present, were made great by what they received from God, not by what they were taught by men."

Emerson says the same thing in his genius essay Self-Reliance. (I've read it dozens of times. It's hot. And you can download the PDF and an MP3 recording of it on the site! :)

"Insist on yourself; never imitate. Your own gift you can present every moment with the cumulative force of a whole life's cultivation; but of the adopted talent of another, you have only an extemporaneous, half possession. That which each can do best, none but his Maker can teach him. No man yet knows what it is, nor can, till that person has exhibited it. Where is the master who could have taught Shakspeare? Where is the master who could have instructed Franklin, or Washington, or Bacon, or Newton? Every great man is a unique. The Scipionism of Scipio is precisely that part he could not borrow. Shakspeare will never be made by the study of Shakspeare. Do that which is assigned you, and you cannot hope too much or dare too much... Abide in the simple and noble regions of thy life, obey thy heart, and thou shalt reproduce the Foreworld again."

So, remember: you will be made great by what you receive FROM GOD, not from your teachers.

That doesn't mean that our teachers don't offer assistance in our paths, but it DOES mean that WE need to take the final step alone, hand-in-hand with God.

We need to have the courage to go beyond the books and fully express our own unique manifestation of the Divine within us.

Fun. :)

"Wisdom is obtained by reading the mind of God."

~ Wallace D. Wattles

"Intellect helps us to see the best means and manner of doing the right thing, but intellect never shows us the right thing."

~ Wallace D. Wattles

"Faith—not a faith in one's self or in one's own powers but faith in principle; in the Something Great which upholds right, and which may be relied upon to give us the victory in due time. Without this faith it is not possible for any one to rise to real greatness."

~ Wallace D. Wattles

"Think of yourself as a perfect being among perfect beings, and meet every person as an equal, not as either a superior or an inferior."

~ Wallace D. Wattles

READING THE THOUGHTS OF GOD

"You can never become a great man or woman until you have overcome anxiety, worry, and fear. It is impossible for an anxious person, a worried one, or a fearful one to perceive truth; all things are distorted and thrown out of their proper relations by such mental states, and those who are in them cannot read the thoughts of God."

Ah. I love that.

So, if you want to become great, you need to become really good at reading the Mind of God so you can fully connect and then express Her goodness.

Now, if you're stressed or anxious or worried or fearful, you're screwed.

Why? Because having any of those emotions is kinda like ripping the plug out of the God socket in the wall. Imagine trying to turn on your refrigerator without plugging it in! You need that energy supply. Even your computer, left unplugged for too long, will run out of juice. Then whaddya do? You plug it back in.

Same thing here.

If you want to experience your greatness, you've gotta plug into Source and you can't do that when you're anxious/worried/afraid.

So, next time you're feelin' those emotions, know you just unplugged.

And do something to plug back in. Whether that's running/smiling/laughing/petting your poochie/going for a walk/meditating/taking a bath or any of the infinite # of ways you can plug in!!

A GREAT ADVANCING SOUL

"You must always learn to see yourself as a great advancing soul."

How do you see yourself?

As a great advancing soul? Awesome. Hone that image even more and envision the next greatest manifestation of your advancing soul!

As something less than a great advancing soul? Eek! Time to exercise your "seeing myself as a great advancing soul muscles"! Worry not. If you've mastered the art of seeing yourself as a limited being, you can take those same skills of imagination and apply them to seeing yourself as a great, advancing soul. It just takes practice. (You practicing? :)

GETTING ABOVE OUR FEARS

"You still indulge in distrustful fears that things will go wrong, or that people will betray you, or mistreat you; get above all of them."

That's strong.

Do you still have distrustful fears that things will go wrong or people won't treat you the way you want?

Get above ALL of them. NOW.

Just start noticing more and more how often little doubts/fears creep in and politely escort them out the door.

Then what?

Then: "Fix upon your ideal of what you wish to make yourself."

"Always do what you feel deeply in the within to be the true thing to do."

~ Wallace D. Wattles

OBEY YOUR SOUL

"Obey your soul, have perfect faith in yourself. Never think of yourself with doubt or distrust, or as one who makes mistakes."

Wow. I'm learning to take these guys literally. So, let's break that one down. Notice the important use of the word "never."

"NEVER think of yourself with doubt or distrust, or as one who makes mistakes."

So, quick quiz: When is it OK to think of yourself with doubt or as someone who makes mistakes?

Bingo! That would be never. :)

Again, start noticing how often you fall into doubt and resolve to switch your focus to what you want/who you're becoming/what your highest Self is evolving into!

CLOSE YOUR EARS & DREAM ON!

"Close your ears to all adverse suggestions. Never mind if people call you a fool and a dreamer. Dream on."

Did you know the guy who invented the radio (Marconi) was thrown into an insane asylum when he told his "friends" that he could harness sound and transmit it from one place to another without anything in between. They thought he was nuts. (It IS kind of nutty when you think about it! You can listen to a radio station while driving your car or talk to your friends on a little piece of plastic with NOTHING (visible, anyway) there.)

Imagine if the people we admire so much decided they'd only do what the people around them thought was reasonable/possible/appropriate. Our world would be kinda boring. We owe all the great advances of our civilization to people who were brave enough to close their ears to all adverse suggestions, eh?!?

As Harry Truman says: "How far would Moses have gone if he had taken a poll in Egypt? What would Jesus Christ have preached if he had taken a poll in the land of Israel? What would have happened to the Reformation if Martin Luther had taken a poll? It isn't polls or public opinion of the moment that counts. It's right and wrong and leadership."

George Bernard Shaw says it beautifully as well: "Reasonable people adapt themselves to the world. Unreasonable people attempt to adapt the world to themselves. All progress, therefore, depends on unreasonable people."

So how about you? You need to close your ears a bit (a lot?) more?!?

DREAM ON!!!

HURRY? UM, NO.

"Hurry is a manifestation of fear; he who fears not has plenty of time. If you act with perfect faith in your own perceptions of truth, you will never be too late or too early; and nothing will go wrong."

Genius.

Are you rushing? In a hurry to get your goals done already?

Well, there's fear wherever hurry lurks. So, be on the look-out. What's the rush? If you KNOW everything's working out just perfectly, why would you ever need to rush? (Hint: you wouldn't. :)

Relax. Enjoy the journey. Give your best. Smile. Breathe. SEE the beauty of your dreams as manifest and KNOW that it's all in escrow waiting for you to take one inspired step after the

*"Do not meddle with the personal habits and practices of others, though they are your nearest and dearest; these things are none of your business.
Nothing can be wrong
but your own personal attitude; make that right and you will know that all else is right."*

~ Wallace D. Wattles

"If you keep yourself right, nothing can possibly go wrong with you, and you can have nothing to fear."

~ Wallace D. Wattles

"Greatness is attained only by the thinking of great thoughts."

~ Wallace D. Wattles

next—with no anxiety, tension, hurry or any of that business.

One blissful step at a time. That's how we manifest our destiny and LOVE the process.

"So surely as you find yourself in the mental attitude of haste, just so surely may you know that you are out of the mental attitude of greatness. Hurry and fear will instantly cut your connection with the universal mind."

THE HABITUAL (!) THOUGHT OF GREATNESS DECIDES YOUR DESTINY

"Whatever you habitually think yourself to be, that you are. You must form, now, a greater and better habit; you must form a conception of yourself as a being of limitless power, and habitually think that you are that being. It is the habitual, not the periodical thought that decides your destiny."

What are you HABITUALLY thinking?

What's the DOMINANT thought pattern you have toward yourself?

We've gotta know that it's not the occasional "Check me out, I rock!" thought that'll get the job done. That's like someone going to church and then yelling at people on the way out of the parking lot. (My dad actually did that! Rest your soul, pops! Love you! :)

Our destiny is decided by our habitual thoughts! (Yes, there's an echo in here.)

We MUST get great at holding the vision of our highest Selves and then LIVING from that fantastic place.

I love it when I repeat the obvious. Again and again and again. Question is: Are you LIVING these truths?!? (Don't worry, I'll keep repeating myself till we all do. :)

EVERYONE CAN BECOME GREAT

"It is within the power of every man to become great."

Do you think you can become great?

Coupla things on that:

1) EVERYONE can become great; and,

2) As per Ford: "Whether you think you can or you think you can't, you're right."

Too often we look at those we admire and think it must have been their destiny to achieve greatness. Something in their genes or astrological chart or just sheer luck. Huh? That's just a REALLY weak excuse for us failing to step up to our own greatness.

As Wattles says: "It is within the power of every man to become great."

And the great Paulo Coelho echoes that when he says: "I learned the most important lesson of my life: that the extraordinary is not the birthright of a chosen and privileged few, but of all people, even the humblest. That is my one certainty: we are all the manifestation of the divinity of God."

YOU HAVE SEEDS OF GREATNESS IN YOU!

I hope you already know that and I hope you have enough strength to work on yourself till you manifest it and most fully give yourself to the world. Why? Well, we need it. But, more importantly, YOU need it! As Abraham Maslow states: "If you deliberately plan on being less than you are capable of being, then I warn you that you'll be unhappy for the rest of your life."

You might be thinking, "Oh, but me? I can't possibly be great. You should have seen how I was raised." Or, "Not for me. I'm in prison." Or, "Me? blah blah blah boring story blah."

"Never forget for an instant that this is a perfect world, and that you are a god among gods. You are as great as the greatest, but all are your equals."

~ Wallace D. Wattles

"You must cease from looking at human mistakes and look at successes; cease from seeing faults and see virtues."

~ Wallace D. Wattles

*"Cast out pride and vanity;
have no thought of trying to rule over others or of outdoing them."*

~ Wallace D. Wattles

Whatever. You only need to look at so many people like Oprah or Malcolm X or 50 Cent (OMG. Former thug drug dealer turned artist turned future billionaire simply rockin' his greatness!) to anyone else you wanna pick who had way worse circumstances than you and turned it around.

Of course, the STATISTICS will tell you that you won't do it. But who gives a *%$# about statistics? If one in a million make it, those are great odds. How many of you are there? Just do it. :)

So, I'll pick up my megaphone one more time: "IT IS WITHIN YOUR POWER TO BECOME GREAT!!!"

stops yelling and sets the megaphone down :)

WHEN TO BE GREAT? NOW!

"Do not merely think that you are going to become great; think that you are great now. Do not think that you will begin to act in a great way at some future time; begin now."

Now a good time to think you're great? Sweet! :)

And, very importantly, now's also a good time to start ACTING like it as well.

Imagine your most incredible self right now. Come on, really get a picture of your greatest self in your mind. How do you look? How do you feel? What are you doing with your life? Who are you around? How are you acting?

Now, BE that person now! Any time you feel yourself acting small, bring that ultimate vision of your Great self into your mind and ask yourself, "How would THEY act right now?"

Then act that greatly NOW!

SO WHAT DO YOU THINK?

"You are not mentally developed by what you read, but by what you think about what you read."

Reading's great. Thinking about what we read, and then living according to what we find true? Much better.

Wattles quotes a few other luminaries to bring home his point that we need to think! Here are a couple of 'em:

Schopenhauer: "We may divide thinkers into those who think for themselves and those who think through others. The latter are the rule and the former the exception. The first are original thinkers in a double sense, and egotists in the noblest meaning of the word."

Goethe: "All truly wise thoughts have been thought already thousands of times; but to make them really ours we must think them over again honestly till they take root in our personal expression."

So whaddya think?

SERVE GREATLY!

"The average person's idea of a great man, rather than one who serves, is of one who succeeds in getting himself served."

Are you more interested in BEING served than in serving?

Note Nietzsche's wisdom here as well and then go give joy: "This is the manner of noble souls: they do not want to have anything for nothing; least of all, life. Whoever is of the mob wants to live for nothing; we others, however, to whom life gave itself, we always think about what we might best give in return... One should not wish to enjoy where one does not give joy."

*"Read less and think more.
Read about great things and think about great questions and issues."*

~ Wallace D. Wattles

"The brain does not make the man; the man makes the brain."

~ Wallace D. Wattles

"It is a tremendous fact that all you need is already within you."

~ Wallace D. Wattles

IN SERVICE TO GOD

"The only service you can render to God is to give expression to what he is trying to give the world, through you. The only service you can render God is to make the very most of yourself in order that God may live in you to the utmost of your possibilities."

Brilliant.

Again, it's not enough to go to church on Sunday's or sit in meditation for a few minutes (or even hours) a day.

If you are truly committed to serving God, remember: "The only service you can render God is to make the very most of yourself in order that God may live in you to the utmost of your possibilities."

THE WORLD NEEDS DEMONSTRATION

"The world needs demonstration more than it needs teaching."

That's one of my absolute favorite lines these days.

I repeat: "The world needs demonstration more than it needs teaching."

So many of us are eager to "teach" but how many of us are demonstrating what a human being looks like who's embodying his/her truths?!

And one final question: What's ONE thing you can start doing today to align yourself even more with your Greatest Self?

Here's to rockin' our Greatness and enjoying the whole process,

About the Author of "The Science of Being Great"

WALLACE D. WATTLES

Wallace Delois Wattles (1860 – 1911) was an American author. A pioneer success writer, he remains personally somewhat obscure, but his writing has been widely popular in the New Thought and self-help movements. Wattles' best known work is a 1910 book called The Science of Getting Rich in which he explained how to become wealthy. He claimed to have personally "tested" the principles he described and they apparently worked, for although he had lived most of his life in poverty, in his later years he was a prosperous man.
